DEDICATED TO JOE WATERMAN, 1932-2020

The fancy has lost an icon. Joe Waterman died in his sleep, May 30th, 2020. Joe will always be remembered by Bichon breeders and exhibitors, along with Frank Sabella, for putting a pattern on that scraggly little white dog from France, the Bichon. He also showed several Bichons that were Group and Best In Show winners. These dogs and Joe were responsible for the remarkable rise of the Bichon. But most of all, Joe will be remembered for his ready smile, generosity, kindness and guidance to new breeders and exhibitors. It will not be the same without Joe in the ring.
